

The Steinway Family Tree

All sorts of specious claims detracting from the merit of the Steinway Pianos are advanced by unscrupulous dealers in other pianos. A favorite among them is the assertion that there are no longer any members of the Steinway family connected with the house of Steinway & Sons. In refutation of this untruth the subjoined "Steinway Family Tree" will be of interest to anyone who may be considering the purchase of a Steinway Piano.

THE FAMILY TREE OF THE HOUSE OF STEINWAY

Henry Engelhard Steinway

Founder of the House of Steinway & Sons

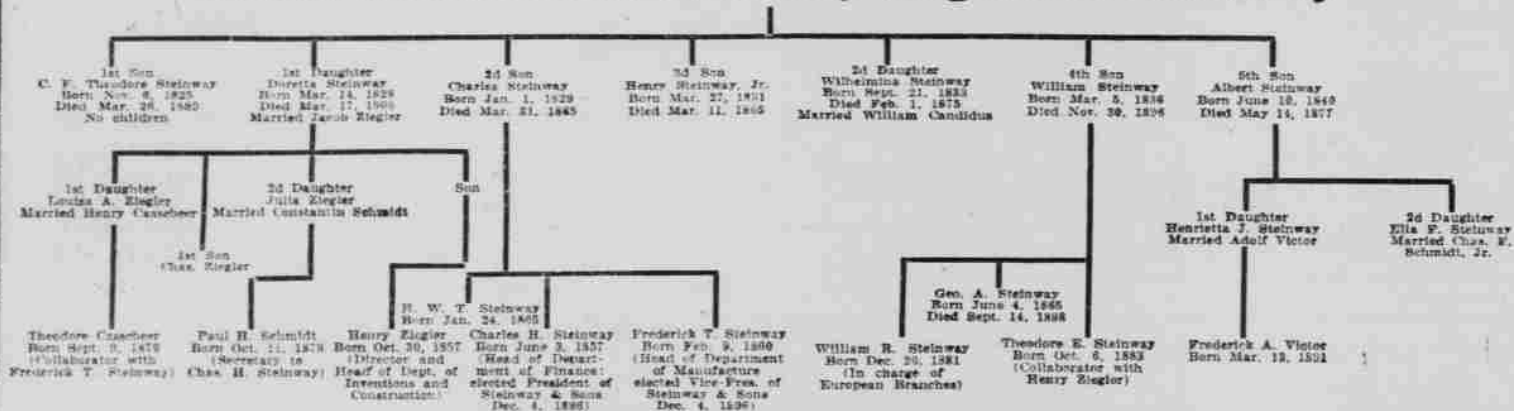

Born at Wolfshagen, Germany, February 15, 1797; died at New York, February 7, 1871.

All descendants whose names appear in bottom row are living and active in the manufacture of Steinway Pianos today.

Mrs. Z. G. Hopkins entertained the Topeka Avenue bridge club this afternoon at her home on Lincoln street.

Miss Myrtle Radcliffe returned Thursday evening from a concert tour of the state. She was playing accompaniments for Mr. Charles Harrison of New York. Mr. Harrison is one of the famous singers who has made records for the talking machines and is often spoken as a rival of John McCormick.

A model of beaver crossgrain silk, trimmed with beaver fur. There is nothing especially new about the skirt. The lines are flaring and there is a border of fur about the hem, which is fully fourteen inches from the ground. An interesting detail of the coat is the method used to accentuate the umbrella flare. Pieces of the material are shaped on the lines of an inverted V and set at regular intervals through the coat-skirt, from the waistline to the hem. The neck finish shows a narrow, flat collar of beaver, widened to form broad revers.

The Good Citizenship league held a conference at the National hotel yesterday afternoon which was attended by a number of out of town people. Among them were: Mrs. Cora Wellhouse Bullard of Tonganoxie, Mrs. M. D. Munson of Pittsburg, Mrs. C. D. Walker of Norton, Mrs. Frank Strong of Lawrence, Mrs. George Barker of Lawrence, Mrs. G. U. Rose of Rosedale, Mrs. J. K. Coddling of Lansing.

The regular meeting was held this morning for the purpose of electing officers, but no change was made in the officers. Those for last year who will still hold office are: Mrs. Cora Bullard of Tonganoxie, president; Mrs. G. U. Rose of Rosedale, first vice president; Mrs. J. K. Coddling of Lansing, second vice president; Dr. Elberta Corbin of Lawrence, recording secretary; Mrs. Lizzie Smith of Topeka, secretary; Mrs. M. Munson of Pittsburg, treasurer; and Miss Agnes Emery of Lawrence, editor. Mrs. J. C. Evans was appointed chairman of the "outlook" committee, and Miss Genevieve Chalkley, chairman of the "study" committee.

No Woman Need Have Straight, Lank Hair

Instead of burning the life out of your hair with a heated curling iron, you can add to its life by using plain liquid seline, and at the same time secure a far better and prettier result. Your hair will have a delightful curl and natural wavy appearance, no matter in what form it is done up. If you will simply apply a little of this harmless fluid at night with a clean tooth brush, drawing this through the hair from root to tip. A few ounces of liquid seline from the drugist will last you a long while. This will not spot the scalp or streak the hair, and it is neither sticky nor greasy. It is without question the best hair-curling method yet found, and no doubt will soon be as popular here as it is abroad.—Advertisement.

HE SPANKED HIS WIFE

But She Was Standing Up, Clothed, and It Didn't Hurt Very Much.

New York, Dec. 10.—Between spasms of weeping, Henry R. Teepe, in the chancellor's court at Jersey City, told how he spanked his wife. The court held that his wife's charges of cruelty were not substantiated and dismissed her suit for divorce.

Yes," sobbed Teepe, "I spanked my wife when she told me to shut up, but I spanked her when she was standing up—and clothed—and it didn't hurt much."
